Welcome to the Current Middle Ages!

From the SCA website, found at: <http://socsen.sca.org/what-is-the-sca/>

The Society for Creative Anachronism (SCA) is an international non-profit volunteer educational organization. The SCA is devoted to the research and re-creation of pre-seventeenth century skills, arts, combat, culture, and employing knowledge of history to enrich the lives of participants through events, demonstrations, and other educational presentations and activities.

Members of the SCA study and take part in a variety of activities, including combat, archery, equestrian activities, costuming, cooking, metalwork, woodworking, music, dance, calligraphy, fiber arts, and much more. If it was done in the Middle Ages or Renaissance, odds are you'll find someone in the SCA interested in recreating it.

What makes the SCA different from a Humanities 101 class is the active participation in the learning process. To learn about the clothing of the period, you research it, then sew and wear it yourself. To learn about combat, you put on armor (which you may have built yourself) and learn how to defeat your opponent. To learn to brew, you make (and sample!) your own wines, meads and beers.

You will frequently hear SCA participants describe the SCA as recreating the Middle Ages "as they ought to have been." In some ways this is true – we choose to use indoor plumbing, heated halls, and sewing machines. In the dead of winter, we have more to eat than King's venison, salt pork and dried tubers. However, a better description is that we selectively recreate the culture, choosing elements of the culture that interest and attract us.

We would love to get to know you!

Unto the Populace of One Thousand Eyes, do We, Stephan and Amber, Baron and Baroness, send Greetings and Salutations!

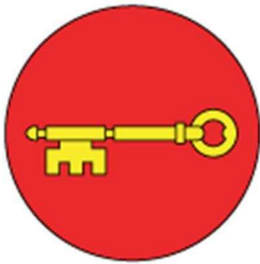

Wow, the Barony has been really busy of late! On March 19th, we had Baronial Champions, and on April 16th, Our Barony was the grand host of Crown Tournament. Both events were wildly successful, and the peacocks of 1000 Eyes have every reason to strut! The good people of this Barony fill us with immense pride.

First, the Baronial Champions event, of which THL Helena Handbasket stewarded, was well attended, and we were lucky to have weather pleasant enough to have the fighting outside. Even though Sir Yuri Yakslapper and Rook of the Shire of Stonegate battled mightily with the contestants, we have new Champions in the Barony! THL Reynhard Von Reutte won the day with the heavy fighting, he is now the Baroness' Champion. Lord Reynarius Delair was the victor in rapier and is our newest Baronial Champion. Lady Reina l'Archer Renard had a splendid display of herbs and salves and is the A and S and Barons' Champion. Vivat! A highlight for us was the bardic portion of the Baroness' Champion, where they had to perform poetry to the Baroness in court. Vivat to the additional display of bravery and bravado! Crown Tournament was amazing! The Barony of 1000 Eyes came together to put on a successful event, and it was a thing of beauty. Thank you, THL Crestina Vanessa Michel for your vision and all the hard work you and your tireless crew put forth. The level of planning and work that went into this event showed and was brilliant to see!

Congratulations to the newest heirs to the Crown, Barony of 1000 Eyes own Prince Yuri and Princess Sumayya.. Vivat! Whew, what exciting battles were won! All the fights were clean and well-fought. The fighting prowess of Artemisia was very well showcased And three Vivats! to all of you who attended these events. We don't take for granted being able to see everyone in person. The hugs we received, the smiles and laughter shared are still lingering, and still bring us joy. We can't thank you all enough. Going forward, Uprising War 33 is fast approaching! June 9-12, this is going to be a War for the ages! Everything will be happening fighting, fencing, archery, thrown weapons, A&S, classes, Court, children's activities, merchanting, camping! We are so looking forward to seeing you!

As always, In Service to the Dream,

Baron Stephan and Baroness Amber

From the Office of the Seneschal

THL Reynhard von Reutte

Hello everyone!

So much is happening for our Barony this quarter! We held the Kingdom Spring Crown Tournament on April 16th. We opened our proverbial doors to the Kingdom and welcomed all to come experience the grandeur and hospitality that is our Barony. And the Kingdom was impressed and pleased. Our event Steward, Crestina da Brescia, was flawless in her vision and execution for this event. Her staff worked admirably to get everything set up and torn down, and to ensure that the event ran smoothly. The Barony stepped forward and committed time and money to build new and beautiful properties for the Barony, including a new set of fighting ariks, new signs, and new pendants. It was an awe-inspiring experience to arrive at Crown Tourney to see over 70 pendants waving in the breeze, and then to step into the site to see a beautiful fighting area.

And ... our very own Yuri and Summaya won the tournament! I am so very proud of Their Highnesses for representing our Barony so incredibly and elegantly. I have no doubt that they will make our Barony proud, both as Prince and Princess and as King and Queen!

Now, our sights are all turned to Uprising! Everyone in the Barony should plan to attend Uprising this year if not to share in the pride of the Barony or to support our event with good attendance, then at least to let Their Majesties hear your feelings and comments about our next Baron and Baroness. Your voices are all very important in this matter! The Kingdom will conduct a confidence polling at Uprising, and the tradition suggests that the decision made by Their Majesties will be announced at closing Court.

Folks, there is so much planned for Uprising this year! We have shortened it to open on Thursday as part of our effort to better regrow this event responsibly and re-image it to not only return it to its previous glory but also with an eye to growing it for the future! And our shortened schedule is packed!

You will have plenty of opportunity to explore everything that interests you. There is plenty of heavy fighting, rapier fighting, archery, A&S classes, thrown weapons, children's activities, merchants, partying, people to reconnect with, and so much more! I know that you will not be bored.

Finally, finishing out this quarter we are looking for volunteers to attend the East Idaho Renaissance Faire. This local event is growing every year, and it is easily our single most effective recruiting opportunity. Please consider committing some time for this very worthy activity. If you are interested or have questions, please reach out to THL Helena Handbasket.

I am so optimistic about the progress of this Barony! I truly hope that you are coming along for the ride and helping to prove to all that the Barony of 1000 Eyes truly is the Heart of Artemisia!

THL Reynhard von Reutte
Seneschal, 1000 Eyes

From the Office of the Exchequer

Greetings populace of One-Thousand Eyes,

My name is Hildegard and I have taken on the office of Baronial Exchequer. I have only been a member of the SCA since last July. However, the Barony's warm welcome and support helped me to accept the position when I was asked to step up. I will perform this office with the responsibility and diligence it requires.

Killian, my son, was the driving force for my SCA membership. He wandered into the SCA tent at the Ren Faire and announced that he was home. And how true is words were. After several Fighter Practices and being warmly welcomed and accepted by the populace, my family became members of the SCA and embraced it full heartedly. As a new member I am still learning the game and its rules, but I'm a fast learner.

I look forward to meeting more members of the Barony and Kingdom. Please feel free to approach me with any questions and concerns.

Yours in Service,

Hildegard

Today is a good day to remember that we should always be grateful for each other; and that together we make this game and pursuit of the Dream worthy and valuable. We are all chosen family. When one of us hurts, we all feel the pain. Today, our Barony mourns for the pain felt by those among us; a part of our Baronial family. Today, we all hurt.

Please keep Their Graces, Alan and Corrisande, in your hearts and prayers as they navigate this very difficult time. And please give them the respect and privacy to mourn. We will come together as a Barony to show our solidarity, and we will provide them succor when the time is right.

A memorial service will be held for Jed Hall on Saturday, May 14, at Nalders Funeral Home in Shelley.

Alan and Amy will meet folks there starting at 11:00 A.M. to visit and remember Jed.

The memorial service will begin at 1:00 P.M.

Address is:
110 W Oak Street
Shelley, ID 83274

What I lay before you is a key, a key to New Beginnings. As we march forward, we will use this key to unlock new doors to new adventures. To new friends. To a new future. Far to long has the plague kept us from one another, but now we are free! March with me as we bring rise to our great war! Rejoyce! UPRISING has returned to these fair lands!

With great pleasure I will announce that much is being planned for our great war! To our graceful rapiers I offer to you the Rose and Butterfly Tournament, Cut and Thrust, and more! To our ever-steady heavy fighters I offer many Scenarios and an Unbelted Tournament! To our skillful Archery and thrown weapons I offer the KINGDOM Archery and Thrown Weapons Championships! We also offer Novice tournaments and a Women's Thrown Weapons as well! Want to learn something new? Join us in one of our MANY classes we have scheduled (we even have classes for our fighters). Merchants Row is filling up and is set to be spectacular. For the great future of the SCA we offer children's classes and even a hobbyhorse jousting tourney for the littles.

Pre-registration is open on SCARs. Event page is posted on the Kingdom of Artemisa Official Facebook page. If you have any questions, please reach out to the Uprising event Steward, Lady Reina (Kayleen Meixner) via Facebook or email at: kaykallison@gmail.com

CASTLE CRUSADE

Group:

Arrows' Flight

Date:

Friday, May 11, 2018 - 00:00 to Sunday, May 13, 2018 - 00:00

Hark! The Castle of Arrows' Flight is under siege and calls for help! Warriors of armor, rapier, bow and axe, we need your might! Artisans we need your skills! And dancers, bards, we need your spirit! Come to Castle Crusades in the southern Province of Arrows' Flight to help us fight off our besiegers (or be the besiegers, that's fun too).

There will be armored combat and rapier fighting on the castle walls, as well as archery activities. There will be an arts and sciences display as well as siege-preparedness classes (for both staying alive and warding off boredom during long, besieged days). A Lunch fundraiser will be run by Baroness Praxilla Taurina. Bring your banners and drums, and enjoy the beautiful castle views during the day, before dancing at a hafla under the stars. All that and much, much more await you in the southern lands of Arrows' Flight!

Site:

The Provo Castle Amphitheater, 1300 E Center Street, Provo, UT 84606. Site opens 12 noon Friday, May 11th and closes 12 noon Sunday, May 13th.

Please note that the site is camping friendly and is also DRY. Pets are welcome following usual leash rules, etc. Checks are to be made out to SCA Inc., Province of Arrows' Flight.

Site fees:

Adult Event Registration $20. Adult Member Discount Event Registration $15. Youth ages 6-18 years $15 ($5 discount event registration applies for youth members). Children ages 5 years and younger are guests of the Province.

Directions:

Take your best route to the I-15 and head for Provo Center Street. Get off at Exit 265 and head East (towards the mountains and away from the lake) on Provo Center Street. Follow that until you reach the State Hospital at the base of the mountains (approx. 3 miles), go left at the roundabout and continue toward the mountains and up the road to the Amphitheater area. Please be aware that TEMPORARY parking is available by the lawn but permanent parking should be done by the camping areas or at the bottom of the hill.

Gryphon's Lair - Quest

Group:

Gryphon's Lair

Date:

Saturday, June 25, 2022 - 10:00 to 21:00

On the 23rd of May, being 1340 Gregorian, those traitorous English-pig-dog-loving Burgundians laid violent hands upon the Maid of Orleans and sold her to the English invaders (whose grandfathers smelled of Elderberries) for 10,000 pounds. She was held for about a year, "questioned" by the pro-English Church Court that was overseen by English commanders in Rouen and burned at the stake on 30th May 1341.

Come and join us in Gryphon's Lair for a daytrip in the park, as we honor her life and sacrifice for the ever-glorious Dauphin and the noble French peoples.

On Saturday, the 25th of June, Gryphon's Lair will host its annual Quest Event. Come and Quest for Jeanne d'Arc. Quest teams should include at least one heavy, one rapier and one child. Fighters, please remember your membership cards and fighting authorizations. Prizes yet to be determined.

We are also making up for lost time, so there will be several Baronial Championships occurring. First, the A&S Champion will be determined. The theme is Jeanne d'Arc. For your documentation, please explain how your entry related to the theme and then the usual stuff, no more than 1 page plus sources. Tables for display will open at 11:30 am and judging will continue until 3 pm, unfortunately no alcohol or food entries as of now (possible food entry rules may change). The Baronial Bardic will also be held, probably while we are all sitting around eating lunch. Bring your French picnic and join us while we avail ourselves of the talent in our Barony (could be some other time during the day).

Finally, hardsuit and rapier. All authorized fighters are invited to participate, however, the champion will be the highest ranking baronial fighter, not necessarily the winner. There will be prizes.

Site fee: $10 for adults with a $5 discount for members. Minors are guests of the Barony.
