Welcome to the Current Middle Ages!

From the SCA website, found at: <http://socsen.sca.org/what-is-the-sca/>

The Society for Creative Anachronism (SCA) is an international non-profit volunteer educational organization. The SCA is devoted to the research and re-creation of pre-seventeenth century skills, arts, combat, culture, and employing knowledge of history to enrich the lives of participants through events, demonstrations, and other educational presentations and activities.

Members of the SCA study and take part in a variety of activities, including combat, archery, equestrian activities, costuming, cooking, metalwork, woodworking, music, dance, calligraphy, fiber arts, and much more. If it was done in the Middle Ages or Renaissance, odds are you'll find someone in the SCA interested in recreating it.

What makes the SCA different from a Humanities 101 class is the active participation in the learning process. To learn about the clothing of the period, you research it, then sew and wear it yourself. To learn about combat, you put on armor (which you may have built yourself) and learn how to defeat your opponent. To learn to brew, you make (and sample!) your own wines, meads and beers.

You will frequently hear SCA participants describe the SCA as recreating the Middle Ages "as they ought to have been." In some ways this is true – we choose to use indoor plumbing, heated halls, and sewing machines. In the dead of winter, we have more to eat than King's venison, salt pork and dried tubers. However, a better description is that we selectively recreate the culture, choosing elements of the culture that interest and attract us.

We would love to get to know you!

Unto the Populace of One Thousand Eyes, do We, Stephan and Amber, Baron and Baroness, send Greetings and Salutations!

We hope that you all are doing well, and staying healthy, as best as you are able. It is Our hope to see everyone soon. We are cautiously optimistic about seeing everyone this summer.

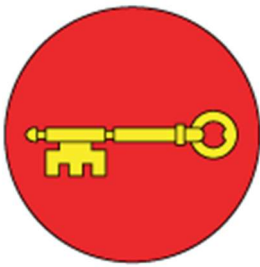

In preparation for summer gatherings and camping, We are encouraging everyone to make ready by using this time to make repairs to their camping items, finishing garb, and otherwise making ready for events. Speaking of events...! While We are saddened that Uprising will not run this year, We are planning on holding a one-day event, June 16, to choose our Champions! The site is yet to be finalized, We will share that when we are ready!

In the meantime, know that you are missed. And thank you all who have been able to participate with the Barony and the Kingdom while we do all of this virtually.

Until we meet again, take care.,

Greetings!

It is sort of like waiting for Disneyland to open as a child! We all wait anxiously for the anticipated opening of the SCA on June 1st. If you are like me, I am hoping with all my might that this comes to pass. I am hoping that the Coronavirus becomes a worry of the past and that we are all able to get together in person gain. I am anxiously anticipating the first event that I can again go to and just socialize with everybody. Which brings me to my main topic ...

We are planning on holding our first in person event after the re-opening on Saturday, June 19th. Presuming that everything re-opens as planned and that the State deems conditions for social gathering to be safe again, we are planning on holding BARONIAL CHAMPIONS on June 19th. The plan so far is for Their Excellencies to hold all tournaments and competitions to name their new Baronial Champions. This will be a one day event and we are attempting to make that fine balance of holding all of our activities necessary to make for a fun and exciting day while at the same time trying to keep everything relaxed enough to give everybody time to socialize and re-acquaint with each other.

The location for this event is still to be determined. We have several locations in mind around the area, but will have to wait to announce the selected site until we are able to actually reserve a site and have it confirmed. We are intending to keep the focus of this event predominantly local in order to control the number of attendees (just in case social gathering is still a concern).

IMPORTANT NOTE: It is likely that this event will require you to pre-register in order to attend. Again, simply so we can closely monitor the number of people we allow on site.

Summer is coming upon us quickly! And that means that other activities are also being discussed and planned. Our return to the park for fighting practices and resuming our business meetings in person amongst several other ideas. The overall goal for this summer is to provide numerous opportunities for all of us to get back together again. We have to remember the camaraderie and pleasure this Barony brings when we all come together again.

I hope every one of you is looking forward to this summer and the ways we can get going again in pursuing the Dream!

Swan and Escallop (Enthusiasm) In the incipience of the Barony of One Thousand Eyes, there was one lady whose grace, enthusiasm, and dedication stood out as an example to us all. In honor of these virtues, the populace did petition Their Majesties to recognize this lady above all others of their number. It was thus that Alessandra Rafaella di Luciano was created and remains Baroness One Thousand Eyes. In her honor and in order to justly recognize those who also demonstrate those qualities of grace, enthusiasm, and dedication, their excellencies, Lyonel and Aquilanne did establish the Order of the Swan and Escallop.

Spring Feast – March 27, 2021 Barony of Sentinels' Keep

Greetings! You are cordially invited to join the Barony of Sentinel's Keep as we celebrate the Arts and Sciences at Spring Feast! The event is being held online, links will be available on the Kingdom and Baronial Facebook pages. Court will begin at 11 a.m. We will be holding our Arts and Sciences competition, and choosing a new Bard of Sentinels' Keep.

This is new territory for us having our Championship online.

The competition will run something along the line of the Kingdom A&S. Please be patient while we figure out the best way to properly show off our Artisans works and talents. Keep watching for updates. It will be determined soon!

Bardic Champion Competition –This year's plans will be at the discretion of the current Champion Lord Oroku. Anyone residing in Northern Artemisia (Montana) can enter to be Champion. The purpose of this is so that you are able to come to events and entertain TEs. Watch the BSK Facebook and Website for future information.

Classes!

We are looking for classes and teachers. If you have something you would like to teach, regardless of group affiliation, we would be honored to have your talents. Please contact the events stewards and let us know with a description of the class and materials needed.

Date:

Saturday, April 10, 2021 (All day)

Though the dark, cold of winter is lifting, the good gentles of Cote du Ciel and friends find their food supplies are slim, the hearth fires are flickering low, and moods are not improving as the quarantine from the great plague continues. We have heard legends of a great Saint roaming these lands in past years, bringing respite to the suffering. We are beginning to wonder, will the legendary St. Pyr appear to ease our long suffering and bring the promise of fire and pancakes to our stricken lands?

Join Cote du Ciel as we wield silly weapons to fight off our bad moods, elevate the Arts and Sciences with classes, select new Shire Bard and A&S Champions, and sit together sharing a plate of pancakes. It is our hope St. Pyr will join our fun and provide warmth, frivolity, and fluffy pancakes. We could all use more pancakes.

Please heed the words of Their Excellencies of Gryphon's Lair, Owen and Malkin:

Greetings unto the Populace of Artemisia,

Recent world events are forcing Our Board of Directors as well Royalty, Officers and Autocrats all over the Known World to make difficult choices. Now more than ever we must put the health and safety of not only the populace of our Kingdom, but that of members from all over the Known World. It is for this reason that we have discussed this matter at length with all parties involved and we regret to announce that the Known World Sciences Symposium is postponed to June 2021.

YIS

Their Excellencies of Gryphon's Lair
